"KEROSENE ACCIDENT.—Last night, Salterton Bayner, (est.) living on East Hargett Street, was badly burned. If not fatal so by the breaking of a kerosene lamp. It seems a woman passing through the room with the lamp in her hand accidentally dropped it on the floor, attempting to know the broken burning mass out of the house, but in the excitement she fell, and in falling, the lamp was broken, the flame quickly igniting her clothing, which was not put out until she was safely removed. She is in a critical condition to-day."—Daily Sentinel, Raleigh, N. C., May 27, 1874.

The Late Severe Accident on the Central Railroad.

The Wilmington papers of yesterday contain the latest information concerning the terrible accident which occurred on the Central Road, near Lilesville, on Wednesday morning, but have little additional to the account given in our telegraphic columns yesterday. In addition to the three already announced as having been killed Wednesday night, the cause of the accident is still unknown.

The whole exercises were interesting, and the quietness of the crowd, packed in the hot chapel for more than three hours, was evidence that the Commencement was a success.

Bishop Keener presented Bibles, and made a few touching remarks.

After singing the long metre doxology the benediction was pronounced by the Bishop and the crowd dispersed.

ACCORDING to the present agreement of the two Houses, Congress will adjourn on Monday next. But a special from Washington says that unless business is pushed through more rapidly than it has been for some days past there is but little prospect for an adjournment on Monday.

It has not been decided to place in the field a Democratic candidate in the Second Congressional District. The Republican majority in this District is some 8,000, but the gallant KIRKMAN made a manly fight in 1872, and we hope that some other gentleman would be induced to sacrifice himself in the endeavor to preserve party organization in that District.

This Richmond Dispatch learns that President GRANT proposes to change the order of his summer recreations by visiting the Greenbrier White Sulphur Springs the present season. What will the annual attendants of Long Branch think of this new departure? We are pleased, however, to see the President turning his face to the South, as we feel confident the mere he learns of the Southerners people by actual association the more kindly will his administration be inclined towards them.

The Enfield Times has been sold to Messrs. P. H. WINSTON, Jr., and MOSSE GILLIAM, of Bertie county, who propose establishing at once a Democratic paper at Windsor, to be called The Albemarle Times. We wish the new enterprise much success, as the Times will be the only Democratic paper in the First Congressional District. Our young friend DANIEL BOND, late of the Enfield Times, designs removing to another State. He carries with him our hearty wishes for his future welfare.

The Western North Carolina Railroad was to have been sold at Salisbury yesterday. The Piedmont Press says it is understood that Major SMITH's resigning the Presidency of the North Carolina road was to enable him to bid for the W. N. C. R. R. as an individual, since he could not do so as President. Rumor hath it that GARRETT, of the Baltimore & Ohio road, desired to obtain it, and that Gen. MAHONE was also determined to own it. If these rumors were true, it is probable that the bidding yesterday was spirited.

The reported condition of the grain crop in the Western States is highly encouraging. The good harvest of last year encouraged the farmers to plant more extensively than on any previous occasion; and the crops, already vigorous and far advanced, give promise of a rich and abundant harvest. The farmers, according to all accounts, are in excellent spirits, and the merchants are making ready for a season of prosperity, which it is expected will be unsurpassed by any former year. The prospects in many of the Southern States is also good, both as to the cotton and grain crops. The yield of wheat in many sections of the South has been good and the area planted in this crop this year was much larger than the year previous. Upon an average, some 10 per cent. less cotton has been planted this year than last, but generally a good stand has been obtained and the seasons are quite favorable.

The Bankrupt Law.

In the United States Senate, Monday, the Committee of Conference on the bankrupt law reported. The bill as in substance exactly as it passed the Senate, with some verbal amendments, and with the difference now that a bankrupt, after paying thirty per cent. of his indebtedness, may be discharged with the consent of one-fourth of his creditors in numbers and one-third in value. The report was concurred in by the Senate, but the House failed to act on it. On Wednesday the bill passed by an overwhelming majority. The House members of the Committee assured the House that finding the Senate would not consent to an absolute repeal of the law, they had set about and secured all the modifications of it so as to ameliorate its present rigor that they could possibly obtain, and said that the House must accept that or leave all the odious features of the present law standing.

The 40th Senatorial District—Col. S. D. Pool's Speech.

Our traveling correspondent sends us the results of the nominating convention of the 40th Senatorial District, comprising the counties of Burke, Caldwell, McDowell, Mitchell and Yancey, held at Morganton on the 16th inst. Kemp Hallyburton, Esq., was called to the Chair. Messrs. J. M. Young, of Mitchell, and J. C. Mills, of Burke, were selected as the standard bearers of that District, to fill the places in the State Senate so ably filled last session by Messrs. J. M. GUDGER and W. W. FLEMMING.

The meeting was then resolved into a county convention for Burke for the nomination of county candidates, resulting in the nomination of S. McDowell Tate, Esq., for the House of Representatives and a full county ticket.

From what we know of these gentlemen, we think the 40th Senatorial District and Burke county will be well represented in the next Legislature.

At the conclusion of the nominations, Col. STEPHEN D. POOL, our standard-bearer for the office of Superintendent of Public Instruction, responded to calls, and made a most able and effective effort, winning much applause and creating enthusiasm in the ranks of our friends in that section. We are pleased to know that this gentleman is giving entire satisfaction to the people of the State, winning many friends wherever he goes, and we may confidently expect his election in August next by a large majority.

The Late Decisions of the Chief Justice.

An upright Judge deserves no credit for an impartial, honest decision. He is merely the mouthpiece of the law, and his function is simply to declare what the law is upon the point presented for his decision. What the consequence of his judgment may be, he can not consider.

While this is true, yet in these uncertain times, when the erring that should be stainless as the snows of winter, is placed upon the unworthy shoulders of DURELL and BUSTED, of UNDERWOOD and of RICHARDSON, when the name of Judge is no longer synonymous with uprightness and integrity, and corruption has invaded the sacred precincts of the Bench, we actually find ourselves ready to applaud, with eager enthusiasm, the Judge who has but done his duty.

The visit of Chief Justice WAITE to North Carolina has been of almost unmixed benefit to the good old State. The suits by which SELF and his co-plaintiffs sought to secure the payment of the interest due upon the fraudulent special tax bonds, and to drain the last dollar from our impoverished people, have been dismissed. The decree permitting SWASEY to sell the States' stock in the North Carolina Railroad does not go into effect until April 1875, leaving it to the Legislature, in the meanwhile, to provide some means to pay the interest due, or to compromise the indebtedness. In all this he has shown a regard for the law, and with it a tender interest in the welfare of the State.

THE DAILY NEWS.

FRIDAY JUNE 10, 1874

NORTH CAROLINA.

Wadesboro is organizing a fire company.

The apple crop will be abundant in the Greensboro section.

Three-legged kittens is the latest Charlotte newspaper sensation.

Reports from the wheat harvest about Salem says that it will be the finest yield known in many years.

Old Sheriff Duckworth, of Burke, is in favor of cremation—he wants to start the thing with independent candidates.

Halifax county is out of debt, and "above board," all the out standing debts having been paid. So says the Roanoke News.

An invoice of 2,000 broom handles has been received at Newbern whereupon the Times man says another warning to husbands.

T. H. Sutton, a new Radical convert, has been nominated by the civil rights for Solicitor in the New Hanover Judicial District.

The internal revenue receipts for the 2d Congressional District amounted to $12,690.92 on special or license tax stamps on liquor and tobacco for 1873.

There is not a white man of any prominence in Duplin that is a Radical, and the county gives a Democratic vote of 130 over its white registration.

It is altogether a mistake that a Hickory J. P. adjourned his Court when the first ball was rolled down the ten-pin alley recently erected in that town.

At the County Democratic Convention, held in Halifax on Saturday last, it was resolved not to nominate either a county ticket, or candidate for Congress in the 2d District.

The Charlotte Observer has seen a bunch of oats, the product of one seed, which had 134 stalks on it. An average stalk, there was 175 grains, giving a production of 34,802 bushels. The oats were grown in the garden of Mr. D. H. Rydel, of that city.

Says the Piedmont Press: "Capt. J. C. Mills, of Bridgeton, Burke county, struck some rich gravel, two weeks ago, which yielded 663 pennyweights to the hand per day. Capt. Mills immediately stopped work in the gravel which was thirty feet underground and commenced a sort of railroad cut, 50 feet wide, 30 deep and 50 long and says he is going to go at the gravel wholesale fashion. This equals California, yet all our young men want to emigrate."

"LET US HAVE A COUPLE OF DOLLAARS."—The Milwaukee Sentinel's Washington correspondent tells the following on General Rusk: "Congressmen are subject to all sorts of impositions and vexations. But innocence must suffer, and Congressmen must have their share. Only yesterday while our mutual friend, the skipper, was standing on a street corner with a $2 bill in his hand, which he was playfully twisting around his fingers, a nicely dressed man approached him with 'Good morning, General; how is your health?' The General answered him politely, supposing he had met an old friend, whose name he had forgotten. A few words passed between them, and when the General was about to ask the stranger his name, the unknown friend said: 'General, please let me have a couple of dollars,' and at the same time innocently turned the bill out of the General's hand, turned on his heels and walked off, leaving a Congressman standing in a state of perfect consternation. This is the way members are served in Washington."

The competition between the New York lines of ocean steamers has nearly reached a point which reminds one of the sharp rivalry in old times upon the Chesapeake, when passengers were begged to come aboard and furnished with meals and staterooms, and their railroad fares paid to their destinations. So it is cheap to go to France as to Niagara. From twenty to twenty-five dollars is the reduced fare over, and the different companies are as busily engaged in cutting each other's throats as a community desirous of traveling economically could desire.—Baltimore Gazette.

The Jackson (Tenn.) Courier-Herald of the 11th says: A young Mr. Fullbright, living about five miles from this city, dropped dead last Saturday evening at 1 o'clock. Several hours before his death he had gone to Harrisonburg, a small village near by, seeking medical advice. After returning home he went to the well in the yard, drew a bucket of water, and was passing it round to lady visitors. When he had finished waiting upon the ladies he started to put the bucket in its accustomed place, and fell dead, saying as he did so, "what's the matter?" It is supposed the young man had the heart disease.

Resolutions Adopted by the State Executive Committee of the Democratic-Conservative Party—Plan of Organization.

The State Executive Committee of the Democratic-Conservative party, held in this city on April the 16th, adopted the following resolutions and plan of organization. We give our hearty endorsement to the resolutions, and hope the recommendations to discourage all manner of disorganization in our ranks will be carried out to the fullest extent. We cannot have any independent action this summer if we would succeed:

RESOLUTIONS.

Resolved, That we deeply sympathize with the people of the West, particularly with those in their want of railroad facilities, and pledge ourselves to use every available means to secure the early completion of their projected lines.

Resolved, That the Republican party having despoiled the State of millions of dollars heretofore appropriated for railroad purposes, is unworthy of public confidence, and that experience justifies the conclusion that if that party should be again entrusted with the administration of our internal improvements, its leaders would again prove recreant to their sacred trust, and would divert the publicfund to their private purposes.

Resolved, That a wise policy dictates the adoption of such measures as may be necessary to increase the educational advantages of the children of North Carolina.

Resolved, That we earnestly recommend to the members of the Democratic-Conservative party to discourage independent candidates and all other disorganizers, and that all support be promptly withdrawn from every aspirant for office who shall oppose the regular nominees of our conventions.

Resolved, That we tender to the friends of Free Government our sincere congratulations at the triumph of the great principles of the Constitution as illustrated by the Democratic successes in the recent State and local elections.

Resolved, That we will remain to the friends of Free Government our sincere congratulations at the triumph of the great principles of the Constitution as illustrated by the Democratic successes in the recent State and local elections.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

NOON DISPATCHES.

Meeting of the Georgia Press—The Printed Strike on the Atlanta Herald.

ATLANTA, June 18.—The Atlanta Advertiser celebrated its seventh anniversary last night. The building was illuminated. A banquet to the Georgia press was given at Peoses', at which fifty editors and proprietors were present from all parts of the State. The room was profusely decorated with flowers, sent in by the ladies of Atlanta. The best feeling prevailed. Mayor Spencer presided. The banquet lasted four hours. The whole party left for Rome on this morning's train, which made the quickest time ever made between Atlanta and Rome. Time 3 hours.

The Atlanta Typographical Union published a card containing denunciations of the strike in the Herald. The office grew out a charge for an advertisement, but say they quit because they were paid off in checks instead of the cash. All they ask is to be paid weekly in cash.

The Jerome Park Races.

NEW YORK, June 18.—The patrons of the turf who assembled in large numbers in the Pool rooms last evening were astonished by the announcement that of the five races on the programme for to-day on Jerome Park course, only two were to be run, namely, a purse of $600 for a three year old and handicapped race.

The reason assigned for the omission of the other races was the success of withdrawal of all running horses from to-day's contest, their owners having become dissatisfied at the inexplicable complications with which the American Jockey Clubs at the Spring meeting had loaded their horses down. The owners complained that weights for ages had not been given in a single purse, and they added that nobody but the managers could understand precisely for what horses were running.

Washington Matters—The Civil Rights Bill.

WASHINGTON, June 18.—Senator T. B. Stamps, of Louisiana, had an interview with Gen. Butler this morning regarding the Levee interests. Gen. Butler assures Stamps that if the two million bill passes the Senate it will have his earnest support in the House. Gen. Butler frankly stated to Stamps that the Civil Rights bill could not be passed this session. Stamps, from varied conversations with Congressmen and Senators, is of the opinion that Fort St. Phillips canal bill will not pass this session.

Gen. Butler made an ineffectual attempt to get the Civil Rights bill from the Speaker's table.

The Bible in Public Schools.

TOLEDO, June 18.—The indications are that the question of reading the Bible in public schools is to be agitated here. In the Board of Education last night, the following resolution was offered:

Resolved, That the reading from any version of the book commonly known as the Bible, singing hymns commonly known as religious hymns and religious action commonly known as prayer, shall not hereafter be any part of the exercises in any of the schools under the control of this Board, and the same is hereby prohibited.

No action was taken on the resolution.

MIDNIGHT DISPATCHES.

THE DISASTER ON THE CENTRAL RAILROAD.

Col. Fremont Explains the Causes of the Accident—The Wounded Doing Well.

WILMINGTON, June 18.—Col. S. L. Fremont, Chief Engineer and General Superintendent of the Carolina Central Railway, telegraphed to-day from the scene of the recent disaster the following explanation of the cause of the accident:

The most terrific rain storm ever known here; six inches of rain is said to have fallen in about three or four hours. The culvert was in good order, and so far as can be seen in the back, fully wounding him.

During a drunken fight this morning, Thomas G. stabbed Charles Shinn three times in the neck, causing serious, if not fatal, wounds. Goss was arrested.

During an alteration last night, Daniel McDermott was stabbed eight times by Mathew O'Neil. The wounds are fatal. O'Neil has been arrested.

Affairs in France get no Better.

PARIS, June 18.—The deputies of the Left Centre again publish a note inviting an alliance with the Right Centre, in order that both parties may establish a republic.

The Left Centre offer all necessary concessions, guarantees, and declare that if the alliance they seek is refused the Right Centre will be responsible for the possible return of the Empire.

The Government has commenced the prosecuting of the proprietors of La Figaro and La France, republican journals, for reprinting in those papers the article written by Henrie Rochefort. The Minister of Justice publishes an order instituting a commission to prepare immediately, a new law for the regulation of the press.

The rain fell in such torrents that it choked the culvert, and the water apparently rose so high that it soaked through the bank, and finally broke it. All this work of construction was done in 1860 or 1867, and the bank is hard and solid all about the culvert, and stood perhaps a thousand rains before. As the rails were not carried away with the bank, but remained suspended with the cross-ties, hanging in their place, and the break in the bank not being longer than the engine and tender, the engine saw nothing wrong until he was in it; besides this it is at the end of a cut and curve that prevented it from being seen until within 200 feet.

(Signed.) S. L. FREMONT, Chief Eng'r. and Supt.

Galfin, the engineer, died of his wounds, and his remains reached here this afternoon. The balance of the wounded are reported better, with strong hopes of ultimate recovery.

The bill appointing a Commission to make an equitable settlement between the Choctaws and the Chickasaws and their negro slaves passed.

The business before the House was that of a miscellaneous character. All sorts of motions were made, a few of which were carried. Pending the proposition to go to the Speaker's table without giving any advantage to the Civil Rights bill, the House tired of the rigors of multifarious projects voted by yeas and nays to adjourn and did adjourn as early as 3:30 o'clock.
